

Sheriff Kieran Donahue Canyon County Sheriff's Office

BIO: Sheriff Donahue is serving his second term as Sheriff of Canyon County, Idaho. He holds an Executive Certificate with the Idaho Peace Officers Standards and Training (P.O.S.T.), the highest level certification in the State of Idaho.

Sheriff Donahue is a Past President of the Idaho Sheriffs' Association and is a Past Chairman and current member of the Executive Board for the Oregon-Idaho High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area (HIDTA).

He was named Sheriff of the Year by the Western States Sheriff's Association in 2016 and he and his office were the recipients of the prestigious Crime Victim Services Award for 2017 by the National Sheriff's Association. In 2019, Sheriff Donahue and his office received a National Certificate of Recognition for Outstanding Public Service of Sex Offender Registry Management. Also in 2019, Sheriff Donahue received the Idaho Association of Counties, Mills Adler Award for Outstanding Elected Official. Voted on by County Elected Officials of the State of Idaho.

He was elected to the National Sheriffs' Association Board of Directors, June 2019 and serves on numerous committees for the National Sheriffs' Association including Government Affairs, Border Security, Domestic Violence and Crime Victim Services, Youth Programs and Juvenile Justice.

He also serves on the Idaho Sheriffs' Association Legislative Committee, the Idaho Association of Counties Legislative Committee and ISA Jail Standards Committee.

Sheriff Donahue is the Founder and Chairman of the Man Up Crusade, a National and International public awareness campaign on the issue of domestic violence.

