

Tracy Basterrechea

Tracy Basterrechea is the Deputy Chief of the Meridian Police Department starting his 25th year with the MPD. A first generation son of a Basque sheepherder, Tracy prides himself in remembering where he came from whether in his personal life or career.

Tracy has had the pleasure to work in every division of the Meridian Police Department, which gives him a good perspective of the importance of all the people who make the MPD a great organization serving its community.

Tracy is a graduate of Boise State University, the FBI National Academy and the Northwestern Center for Public Safety School of Police Staff and Command.